

FISCAL NOTE

HB 2258 - SB 2242

March 9, 2005

SUMMARY OF BILL: Abolishes the Board of Building Code Appeals and puts building code appeals under the provisions of the Uniform Administrative Procedures Act. Authorizes counties and municipalities to charge not more than $1.00 per page to certify any codes adopted by reference when a request for such is made.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

State Expenditures – Net Impact – Not Significant

Increase Local Govt. Revenues – Not Significant

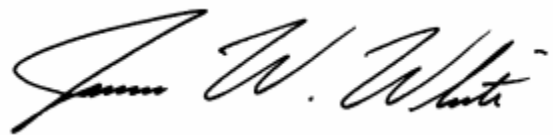

Increase Local Govt. Expenditures - Not Significant

Assumptions:

- The decrease in state expenditures to abolish the Board versus the increase in expenditures to have appeals heard through UAPA procedures will be not significant.
- A not significant increase in local government revenues from the collection of any fees that accompany requests for certification of codes adopted by reference.
- A not significant increase in local government expenditures to certify codes adopted by reference when requested.
